4.2 Records available without requesting access in terms of the act

PPECB has not, in terms of Section 52(2) of the Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000, submitted categories of records which are automatically available without a request for access. Certain information is, however, freely available on the website at <http://www.ppecb.com>.

4.3 Records available on request

A requester may request access to the following information subject to the access being denied in terms of the Act:

- i. Human Resources:

"Employee" includes, without limitation, directors, managers, all permanent, temporary and part time staff as well as all contractors.

 - Personal information provided by employees;
 - Information provided by a third party relating to employees;
 - Conditions of employment and other personnel-related contracts;
 - Internal evaluation records and other internal records;
 - Correspondence relating to employees;
 - Training schedules and material;\
 - Disciplinary records;
 - Payroll records;
 - Various leave records.

- ii. Stakeholder-related records and information:

"Stakeholder" includes any natural or juristic entity who receives services from the PPECB.

 - Any information a stakeholder has provided to PPECB;
 - Any information the stakeholder has provided to a third party acting on behalf of PPECB;
 - Records generated by or within PPECB pertaining to the stakeholder, including transactional records.

- iii. Records pertaining to PPECB

This includes, but is not limited to:

iv. Records related to other parties

PPECB may possess records pertaining to other parties, including (but not limited to) contractors, suppliers and service providers. Alternatively, such other parties may possess records which can be said belong to PPECB. The following records fall in this category:

- Employee, client or PPECB records which are held by another party as opposed to being held by PPECB;
- Records held by PPECB pertaining to other parties, including (but not limited to) financial records, correspondence, contractual records, records provided by the other party and records third parties have provided about contractors and or suppliers.

5. REQUESTING PROCEDURE

A person wishing to access the records of PPECB must complete the necessary request form. This request form is available from the Information Officer or at <http://www.ppecb.com/> or <http://www.doj.gov.za/>. The form requires the requester to provide inter alia the following information:

- Sufficient information to enable the Information Officer to identify the requester;
- Sufficient information to enable the Information Officer to identify the records requested;
- The form of access required;
- The requestor's postal address and fax number;
- Identification of the right sought to be exercised or protected;
- An explanation why the specific record is required to exercise or protect the right;
- The manner in which the requester wishes to be informed of the decision on the request;
- If the request is made on behalf of a person, the submission of proof of the capacity in which the requester makes the request, to the satisfaction of the Information Officer.

Requesters must note that all of the information on the request form should be provided to the satisfaction of the Information Officer, failing which the process will be delayed until such time that the information is complete.

The time periods prescribed by the Act will not commence until such time as the Information Officer is satisfied that all pertinent information has been furnished to PPECB by the requester.

It is important to note that access to certain records may or must be denied on the grounds set out in the Act. Mandatory grounds for refusal include, but are not limited to:

- Information for the protection of the privacy of a person;
- Information for the protection of the commercial and/or confidential information of third parties;
